

2022 NCSEA Innovative Partnership/Collaboration Award Nomination Form

Program Overview & Nominee Information

The NCSEA Innovative Partnership/Collaboration Award recognizes innovation in partnership between a child support agency and any other group(s) that assists families. This includes, but is not limited to, collaborations between a child support agency and court or another agency, organization, or program serving parents, families or children. Consideration will be given for innovation and creativity in programs designed to be impactful on the child support program.

If the nominator is NOT the IV-D Director, he/she must indicate whether they have shared the recommendation with the State IV-D Director. At least one public sector individual (excluding the individual being nominated in conjunction with the organization) must be the nominator or an additional reference.

The deadline for 2022 award submissions is Monday, May 16, 2022. Questionnaires must be completed by that date. Incomplete submissions will not be considered.

Supporting materials may be submitted via email to annmarie.ruskin@ncsea.org. If the supporting materials include a video, it is preferred the video be available for online viewing (e.g. via You Tube, Vimeo, etc.). All other supporting documentation must be submitted electronically. Supporting materials must be received by May 13, 2022 or they will not be considered in the evaluation process. Please note that lack of these document may impact the review and evaluation of the nomination.

The award presentations will be held at the NCSEA 2022 Leadership Symposium, August 7-10, 2022 in Charlotte, North Carolina.

If you have questions about the application, please contact Ann Marie Ruskin, NCSEA Executive Director, 703-506-2885, or annmarie.ruskin@ncsea.org.
